

Heroes recognised for brave efforts

EDITOR - As a Klopper Park resident, it was most comforting to hear the wonderful news that Mamba, Edenvale, was this week's hero (Mamba Update, page 4, March 18 edition of the NEWS).

Two criminals were caught after two attempted break-ins and two burglaries in the surrounding area on March 13.

Household goods, such as television sets, computers and DVDs, were recovered.

The names of this week's heroes need special recognition for their heroic deeds - Boycie Sambo, Alfred Mathe and Themba Nthembu, assisted by Joey Vermeulen, Ricardo Human and JP Byleveld.

Costly petty crime is a concern for all these days and we would like to thank Mamba for having a visible patrol on our streets.

A special thank you to the incredible Bedfordview SAPS for your endless work in our neighbourhoods.

You are all very much appreciated.

CAROL
